MINISTRY OF HEALTH BILL.

New Clause, further considered.

Question again proposed, "That New Clause ('Application to Ireland') be read a second time."—Question put, and negatived.

Another New Clause ("Application to Ireland") brought up, and read the first time as under:—

- "(1) For the purpose of promoting the health of the people in Ireland and exercising the powers conferred on him by this Act the Chief Secretary shall be the Minister of Health for Ireland, and it shall be his duty as such Minister to take all such steps as may be desirable to secure the effective carrying out
5 and co-ordination of measures conducive to health, including measures for the prevention and cure of diseases, the treatment of physical and mental defects, the collection, preparation, and publication of information and statistics relating thereto, and the training of persons for health services.
- (2) The provisions of this Act with respect to consultative councils shall 10 apply to Ireland with the substitution therein of the Lord Lieutenant for His Majesty and with the addition of the following provision:—
- For the purpose of giving advice and assistance and making proposals to the Chief Secretary in connection with his powers and duties under this Act a council shall be established (which shall be called the Irish 15 Public Health Council) consisting of the following persons:—
- (a) The Vice-President and the two other Commissioners of the Local Government Board for Ireland;
 - (b) The chairman and such two others of the Irish Insurance Commissioners as may be nominated by the Chief Secretary;
 - 20 (c) The Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in Ireland;
 - (d) A registered medical practitioner, who shall act as chairman of the Council under the direction of the Chief Secretary, and three other registered medical practitioners, one of whom shall be a 25 woman and one of whom shall be a medical practitioner who is registered on the Medical Register in respect of a diploma in sanitary science, public health, or State medicine;
 - (e) Six other persons having practical experience of matters relating or incidental to or affecting the health of the people.
- 30 (3) The Chief Secretary shall from time to time nominate the persons who are to be members of the Irish Public Health Council under paragraphs (d) and (e) of the preceding sub-section.
- (4) The expenses of the Chief Secretary and of the Irish Public Health Council under this Act, including such remuneration of the chairman and other 35 members of that Council as the Treasury may determine, shall be paid in like manner as the expenses of the Ministry.
- (5) Save as aforesaid, or as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, the foregoing provisions of this Act shall not apply to Ireland"—(Mr. Attorney-General for Ireland).

Question, "That the New Clause be read a second time,"—put, and agreed to.

Amendment made, in the proposed New Clause ("Application to Ireland"), line 6, after the word "defects," by inserting the words "The initiation and direction of research"—(Mr. Attorney-General for Ireland).
